This game is FUN.

When first starting the game, if using an controller, use the mouse on the main menu first, and keep using it until the character select screen. Once in the game, it brings back old school memories and you will die.

Good luck!. I like this DLC vary much. The gameplay is, on the wole, smooth, just perhaps a little juddering at slow speeds, but not enough to ruin the gameplay. I love the look and sound of the locomotive, and the passenger view is of the old class 2 (I think) carriages; atmospheric - you can almost smell that old train smell. Only seems to come with three scenarios, all for the Darlington/Bishop's Auckland route, which is a shame, but perhaps these locos were only used on that region in real life. One of the better DTG DLCs. Recommended.. Mindless Running - This name says it all!. This SHMUP is awesome!, that mix between the shield and the short/long range shot it's simply beautiful and organic; i'm not gonna lie, my first try in this game was via piracy, and it took me less than 5 minutes to decide that it would be mine forever!!!

P.S: Awesome, i repeat, AWESOME OST!!! (Original & Arrange)

A MUST BUY FOR ANY SHMUP PLAYER.. First better mouse/keyboard/joystick choise subrouteen, Cut and paste? After completing the 3 training missions no matter what i tried next, landing at enemy base, whohoo dogfight,or live matches I ended up flying through hoops(1st lesson)...big round buttons saying bomb/fire right side below nose, accompenied for juration of flight (from cellphones (handys)) need another Font for eg buying kit, dosnt work at all, unreadable, Due to the fact I couldnot get out of the 3 training missions, not worth a Quater of the given money! . The horse riding was quite cool, but the frequent crashes, bad acting and dialouge result in a medicore experience.. I'm not normally one for horror games, but that scene from the 2nd Jurassic Park movie was basically imprinted into my childhood so I had to give it a shot. Quite glad I did. Even though it's definitely horror, you're in full control of your destiny, and I like that.

The game starts slowly and builds up tension quite expertly. There's a bit of narrative to latch onto (always goes a long way in making me feel involved in the world). The feeling of raptors stalking you is exactly as you'd imagine. Their movements, the sound, all really well done. The models and animations are a bit janky, but serve their purpose. The game changes things up a bit as it goes along, giving you a few more things to toy with and even a whole new threat (again, the build up to the encounters are great). The final section is hectic, and you need a bit lucky to survive that part (defending yourself becomes hard and you're screwed if multiple raptors decide to close in at the same time), but overall a great VR experience.

Can't wait to see the next chapters.

Another fun game from Sixteen Tonnes Entertainment. I suggest any fan of the Emergency Series get this game!. Paid as much as I would for a decent cheese burger and it was a fun game to play for a few hours. Not terribly long, moderate replay value, and like Rogue Legacy, you spawn as a new hero with new abilities, but I didn't die enough to fully enjoy that mechanic.

7.5/10 would play a game similar.. This is an old racing game from 2005. At 13 years old, it's aged slightly better than most games for the time, boasting 4K support. But it is still dated. The $36 price tag is just unacceptable for this. There are other, quite reasonable modern alternatives.. The Last Birdling is one of the most fantastic VN's I've read. Every character is packed with personality, and throughout the story it's a treat to see how everyone changes (or doesn't change). And even though it's only a few hours to reach an ending, it feels so much longer than that. Props to InvertMouse for telling such a moving tale.. They say they had a little help from their friends but nobody who plays this game has friends
